Dear Sir/Madam,

I have pleasure in informing you that the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (UK) will once again organize "The WMO/UK Met Office Aviation Seminar," hosted this year by the India Meteorological Department (IMD) in New Delhi, India, from Monday 13 to Friday 17 November 2017. As has been the case for previous aviation seminars, the Permanent Representative of the UK with WMO (Mr R. Varley) has kindly invited WMO to co-sponsor this important training event and to issue on his behalf an invitation to Members to designate potential participants.

The aim of the seminar is to provide training, guidance and practical examples of several key aspects of meteorology and forecasting for Aviation, to support forecasters in this specialized area. This year's seminar will focus on the topics of Aviation Hazards and SIGMETs. A provisional programme is included as Annex 1 to this letter.

The seminar is being developed in close collaboration with the WMO CAeM Expert Team on Education, Training and Competency (ET-ETC) and will be of greatest benefit to operational aeronautical forecasters and trainers. The seminar will be open to Members within the WAFC London WAFS data footprint, which includes Africa, the Middle East, Asia and Europe.

Presentations will be made by experts in relevant fields utilizing the latest training delivery methods. Delegates will be encouraged to discuss the topics presented and to actively participate in the seminar's practical sessions.

The working language of the seminar will be English; it is therefore essential that every delegate has a good understanding of the English language. Accommodation will be arranged for around 20–25 participants. An information note will be sent to the selected participants in due course.

To: Permanent Representatives of Members of Regional Association I
 Permanent Representatives of Members of Regional Association II
 Permanent Representatives of Members of Regional Association VI
 Permanent Representatives of Members of Regional Association V (limited distribution)
 (Australia, Brunei, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Timor Leste)

cc: President and vice-president of CAeM

A form for the nomination of participants to attend the seminar is attached as Annex 2 to this letter. Costs for participants' accommodation and travel to this seminar are expected to be borne by their employers. However, the Met Office will consider funding requests for a limited number of cases with priority given to applications that fulfil the following criteria:

- The application is from a least developed country (LDC);
- A financial contribution is offered by their home NMS or employer to the overall cost of their attendance;
- A brief résumé is provided describing how the applicant would expect to benefit from the topics described in the seminar's provisional programme.

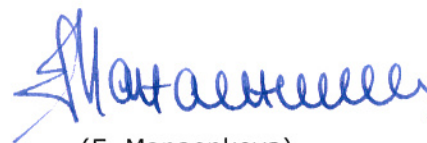

Those eligible for assistance will be advised by the UK following the acceptance of their application.

Nomination forms should be completed and e-mailed to Darren Hardy (darren.hardy@metoffice.gov.uk) or faxed 'For the attention of Darren Hardy' (+ 44.1392. 885.681) at the Met Office, with a copy to WMO, as soon as possible, but not later than 31 August 2017. Please note that for planning purposes, no applications will be taken into consideration after that date.

In order to clarify WMO's insurance coverage for non-staff members, please advise your nominee to the above seminar before they undertake travel, as follows:

"In the case of non-staff members of the Organization who are authorized to travel at its expense and/or who are receiving a daily subsistence allowance, the WMO accepts limited responsibility for compensation in the event of death, illness or injury attributable to attendance at meetings or the performance of services on behalf of the Organization. These persons are therefore fully responsible for any expenses incurred as a result of events which are not attributable to attendance at meetings or the performance of services on behalf of the Organization and for arranging such life, health and other forms of insurance as they consider appropriate."

Yours faithfully,
