Subject: WMO Secretary-General's briefings to Permanent Representatives

Dear WMO Permanent Representatives,

I have the honour to invite you to two briefing sessions, organized on 4 May 2022.

During these two briefings, I will outline for you the WMO key initiatives, focusing on the latest call from United Nations Secretary-General Mr Guterres on Early Warning Systems as well as the greenhouse gas budget initiative. I will provide you with an update on progress on the WMO Regional Reform, major initiatives and opportunities for the coming year. I will be pleased to answer all your questions.

In order for all Members to be able to connect to these important events, two briefings are organized on 4 May 2022:

1. Eastern Hemisphere: 0800 – 0930 (CEST)
Interpretation will be provided in all languages
