The Secretariat of the World Meteorological Organization (WMO) presents its compliments to Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva and has the honour to invite the Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva to attend to the launch of the European State of the Climate 2023 (ESOTC 2023) report on 22nd April at 12:30-13:30 at the WMO Headquarters and online. Registration to the event is kindly requested via this link.

This year, Copernicus Climate Change Service (C3S) and WMO will release a joint report, which provides descriptions and analysis of climate conditions and variations across the Earth system, key events and their impacts in Europe last year, and a discussion of climate policy and action with a focus on human health.

The launch event will be opened by Prof. Celeste Saulo, Secretary-General of WMO, Dr Florence Rabier, Director General, European Centre for Medium-Range Weather Forecasts (ECMWF) and Dr Elena Mateescu, President of WMO Regional Association VI, Director General, National Meteorological Administration, Romania. The launch will be followed by a presentation of key findings of the report by experts from C3S and WMO.

The Secretariat of the World Meteorological Organization avails itself of this opportunity to renew to Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva, the assurances of its highest consideration.
